

Dangerous

Two Steps from Hell

Like the break of the dawn and sun
We will rise before you
You and I have seen the end
Now it's time to show you

Your little lies are oil on my skin
Your little lies, the oldest of sins
You're an angel looking into my eyes
I can see you, travel back into time
Still they say you hide a devil inside
You are dangerous
So am I

Do you hear the fire burn?
It will call your name
Steady rising before the end
For the whole tomorrow

Your little lies are oil on my skin
Your little lies could not let me in
You're an angel looking into my eyes
I can see you, travel back into time
Still they say you hide a devil inside
You are dangerous
So am I
So am I
So am I
So am I
Yeah, oh

You're dangerous
With all your lies
You see me rise
You're an angel looking into my eyes
I can see you, travel back into time
Still they say you hide a devil inside
You are dangerous
So am I
So am I
So am I
So am I

Like the break of a dawn and sun
We will rise
