

Stay

Two Steps from Hell

I like the way your eyes look into mine
I like how it feels when you smile
I like the way you watch me when I walk away
Say you'll stay

I like to feel your breath on my face
I like to swim around in your good grace
I like the way your lips taste
Say you'll stay

Say you will stay
Say you will stay

I like how I don't expect anything from you
You surprise me daily through and through
I like how you listen to what I say
Say you'll stay
Say you'll stay

I like to feel your breath on my face
I like to swim around in your good grace
I like the way your lips taste

Say
You will stay

Say
