

A Human's Touch

TWRP

Am I a toy to you, my love?
Just a thing to play
And then throw away

I never asked for this
I always did my best
Without your love I am a broken mess
Now I'm never enough
It's almost too much
For me to work I need a human's touch

I'm just a toy to you, my love
Just a thing to play and
Then throw away

I need a human's touch, but
You don't need me
I need a human's touch, but
I'm obsolete

We were still going strong
I never did you wrong
Until the new me came along
It was just you and me
We were such a good team
But now I'm alone on the boulevard of broken screens

Just a thing to play and
Then throw away

I need a human's touch, but
You don't need me
I need a human's touch, but
I'm obsolete
I need a human's touch, but
You don't need me
I need a human's touch, but
I'm obsolete

I need a human's touch
I need a human's touch
I need a human's touch
I need a human's touch
