

Atomic Karate

TWRP

Ancient wisdom, arcane art
Martial prowess that will stop your heart
Epic power, discipline
Nuclear moves that always win!

I split the atom with my high kick, baby
I am a master 'cause I practice daily in atomic karate

The color of my belt is blacker than night
The enemies see me and run in fright
I will not hesitate to use it, too
On anyone who stands between me and you

There's only one thing hotter than my karate
It's when you dance and shake and rock that body (yeah!)
I see you movin' how you flow like a river
You do it so good, girl, that you make me shiver

I split the atom with my high kick, baby
I am a master 'cause I practice daily in atomic karate

All I have to do is show up to the fight
I make their heads explode when I come into sight
I spin my nunchucks and release a trillion newton
Forces of evil, I will always leave in ruin

I split the atom with my high kick, baby
I am a master 'cause I practice daily in atomic karate

If we join forces we would set the world right
Imagine you and me girl, wouldn't it be tight?
I could be your love sensei
If you'd be my atomic karate lady

I split the atom with my high kick, baby
I am a master 'cause I practice daily in atomic karate
