

Dance Floor Cold War

TWRP

It is the near future
The club is a barren wasteland
There is a global dance floor cold war

Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war

They had warned us this would happen
Then it all became so real
When the beat dropped like an A-bomb
Now the disco's a battlefield

Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
And now I'm heating it up
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
And now I'm heating it up
And now I'm heating it up
And now I'm heating it up

You and I once danced together
(Danced all night long)
Long before you learned to feel
(Now you're feeling so much)
Then you turned and danced against us
Now the disco's a battlefield!

In the twilight hours of the 20th century
Humanity created a race of really good dancing robots
We programmed them to dance better than we ever could
But we never imagined that they would dance against us

The likelihood of a truce seems unlikely
Our only hope of salvation lies in a single dancer
Could it be you? Or you? Or you?
Or you?

Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war
Dance floor cold war

Or you, or you, or you...
