

Tactile Sensation

TWRP

Every time I see you I feel these emotions building up inside
I don't know what to do, always touching on our touch screens
Just wanna see, maybe this could be real

Oh baby, I knew, I knew
When you walked in the room
See I'm trying, I got to got to try
To make my move
So I moved a little closer
To get under the light
And I'm dancing, I'm trying to impress ya
To catch your eye

And when you finally looked my way
I tried to find the right things to say
You're like a vision from a dream
That I wanna see in reality, ooh

Alright, tonight is the night
I'm waiting for your invitation
One look and you got me shook
Your smile is my motivation (motivation)
One touch is never enough
Your body is a celebration
With fast love and slow hands
I want a tactile sensation (real sensation)

You got me wired like a sex machine
Thighs feelin' thunder when ya shake it past me
Oh, you got them brains, yeah, and you got that booty (Boo-tay)
If you don't want my love, baby tell me what you need

And when you finally looked my way (finally looked my way)
I tried to find the right things to say (find the right things)
You're like a vision from a dream (like a vision from a dream)
That I want to feel in reality, yeah

Alright, tonight is the night
I'm waiting for your invitation
One look and you got me shook
Your smile is my motivation (motivation)
One touch is never enough
Your body is a celebration
With fast love and slow hands
I want a tactile sensation (real sensation)

When we started dancing, baby, it was so romantic (so romantic)
With your hand in mine, I could feel a tingle down my spine (tingle down my spine)
I said baby, come to me (come to me)
Your lovin' sets me free (sets me free)
Your touch (your touch) is what I (what I), your touch (your touch) is what I need (what I need)
So touch me (touch me)

Huh!
Alright, tonight is the night

I'm waiting for your invitation (for your invitation)
One look and you got me shook
Your smile is my motivation (motivation)
One touch is never enough
Your body is a celebration (is a celebration)
With fast love and slow hands
I want a tactile sensation

Taking over, taking over, taking over

I just want
(So even if it's just for this one time)
To feel something real
(Where my body ends and yours begins)
I just want
(At least I'll always know)
To feel something real
(For tonight, your touch is just for me)
TWRP and Planet Booty forever
