

The No Pants Dance

TWRP

Girl, nice to meet you
Would you like to let me teach you
All the ways I'd like to reach you
From the back of the class
You keep me guessin', man
You're messin' with my lesson plan
Your body's window dressing
And my heart's made of glass
Sexual tension was what
I would like to mention
This is like a new dimension
And I want it to last
It felt like destiny
When you began undressing me
If this is just love testing me
It looks like I passed

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

The morning after
Left me hanging from the rafters
Like a natural disaster
Had just blown through the door
Your gazing eyes turned up to mine
And let the sunrise in the sky
Where I thought love could never fly anymore
I needed saving, I was brave, but then I caved in
'Cause your sexy misbehaving
Shook me right to the core
Now hold me close
Rip off your clothes
And make the most of this
Explosive roller coaster
From the roof to the floor

Love that dance
Girl, it's your chance
No pants dance

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off

Girl, I like the way that you dance
When you dance
Like the way that you dance
When you dance with your pants off
