

Cruel World

TX2

This world's nothing but cruel cause of people like you
You're goddamn vultures

I'd hate to break the news but were all pawns to be used
And no one gives a fuck about you

As you sit down at your desk
Throwing gum at the depressed
I know your daddy raised his hand so let's make sure he's impressed

Wasted all my teenage years
Got picked apart by my peers
Another road kill for you selfish pricks
Who feast on our flesh

If I could've worn mascara
Without getting beat to shit
I could've had a chance to live this-

Worlds nothing but cruel...
Cause of people like you
You're goddamn vultures

I'd hate to break the news but were all pawns to be used
And no one gives a fuck about you

As you sit down at your desk
Do you feel that sound in your chest?
A beating heart, how many years left?
Till your legacy's dead!

You spent your life mocking us
Just so you could end up a
Sick washed up addict to the trap
Of middle America

You should've worn mascara
You should've took the hit
Then maybe you would have to say this

Worlds nothing but cruel...
Cause of people like you
You're goddamn vultures

I'd hate to break the news but were all pawns to be used
And no one gives a fuck about you

You're stuck in Colorado all you'll ever become
Is a washed up alcoholic under somebody's thumb
You're still a fucking no one
Everybody hates your guts
Till your dead
Till your dead

This world's nothing but cruel cause of people like you
You're goddamn vultures
I'd hate to break the news but were all pawns to be used

And no one gives a fuck about you

This world's nothing but cruel cause of people like you

You're goddamn vultures

I'd hate to break the news but were all pawns to be used

And no one gives a fuck about you
