

FAITH

Ty Brasel

God of the mountains and valleys
You're still here with me
When I cannot see
When I don't believe
When my faith is weak
When I can't find peace
Ah ah ah ah ahh

God of the storms and light
You light up my life
When I lose my sight
When I can't get it right
When I lose my mind
When my faith is weak
When I can't find peace
Mhm hmm

Transcending the pain
Transcending it all
And through the rain
Transcending it all
And I'll lift up my eyes when you call
And I'll meet you right back at the start
When I lose my faith
When I lose it all
When I lose my way
I'll meet you right back at the start

Well done, traveller
You have transcended dimensions
