

High Enough

Ty Brasel

I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough, uh
Time to make a move
I was destined for the come up
I ain't staying down I been here
Long enough ain't no excuse
Tryna get what's meant for me
It ain't no time for wasting
I can't waste it
I got way too much to lose
I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low
I still ain't high enough

Yeah, yeah, I still ain't high enough
Yeah, yeah, I still ain't high enough no, no
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough, look, uh

I been on the edge don't jump
Hold ya head T
God complex, don't you run
Judas kiss me, satan hissing tongue
Lucy want, I'm a fresh prince
GodFather scarred face
We prevail hells gates
Babylon made me, product of my city
Got a ticket to the promised land
I think I should stay here
Higher power light the valley
I follow the lead, uh
Write the sound of heaven
Feel life In the melodies, uh
I been down for too long
But I refuse to die low
Time to take these chains off
I'm a freedom writer
I speak my peace in the fire
I lift my stone to the giant
I got these angels surrounding
I was just destined to go higher, yeah

I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough
Time to make a move
I was destined for the come up

I ain't staying down I been here
Tryna get what's meant for me
I can't waste it
I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low

Calling 4 a sign I
A sign I
I been through hell 9 times
Look tho look like I got 9 lives
I know heartbreak chest pain
Fake smile fighting tears ready to die
Nightmares anxious lighthead
Paranoid cautious insomniac
Yeah that's more what my life like
My life life, that's more what my life like
If you ain't walked in these Nikes
Then you don't know what the price like
Or you might, maybe that sound like your life
Maybe we all been down to long
And now we go for the high life yeah
I been down for too long
I'm a freedom writer
I speak my peace in the fire
I lift my stone to the giant
I got these angels surrounding
I was just destined to go higher, yeah

I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough
I still ain't high enough, uh
Time to make a move
I was destined for the come up
I ain't staying down I been here
Long enough ain't no excuse
It ain't no time for wasting
I can't waste it
I can't stay down
I was destined to come up
Life been too low
