

No Limits

Ty Brasel

On this road to redemption
I been through hell and back
Across dimensions
Devil want the boy he tryna kill him
But he can't take me out
I'm relentless, yeah
They thought I was finished
But it's only the beginning
Sticking to the script
From the jump never switching
Look down at the sky
So it really ain't no limits
Yeah yeah
It's no limits yeah yeah
It's no limits yeah yeah

Feel like sometimes
I could change the world
All my life, knew I could be the one
I'ma reach new heights
Hope you ain't afraid of em yeah
It's no limits
Giving my soul to this I put my heart in it
Angels surrounding me
Looking like I'm transcendent
Light beaming down on me
I'm shining luminescent
To the point it's monumental
To the point they'd rather end me yeah
I was having premonitions
I could feel the intuition
I saw my life flash, I thought it was my last
Til God spoke I awoke, the story is written
My fate is redemption
Back on the mission

On this road to redemption
I been through hell and back
Across dimensions
Devil want the boy he tryna kill him
But he can't take me out
I'm relentless, yeah
They thought I was finished
But it's only the beginning
Sticking to the script
From the jump never switching
Look down at the sky
Yeah yeah
It's no limits yeah yeah

Feel like sometimes
All my life, knew I could be the one
Hope you ain't afraid of em yeah

It's no limits yeah yeah
(Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh)
(Ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh)

Oh it's no limits yeah
It's not limits yeah
Alright yeah
No it's no limits yeah
