PRICELESS

Ty Brasel

Won't you come with me
We'll take a trip to a island
Fly across the ocean slide in auto pilot
Change ya plans but don't worry
What the price is, this moment priceless
And this feeling's timeless
Won't you come with me
We'll take a trip to a island
Fly across the ocean slide in auto pilot
Change ya plans but don't worry
What the price is, this moment priceless
And this feeling's timeless

When I thought bout you
I wrote this love letter
An I know you into poetry I'll say it poetic
You my aesthetic, you rolling with the
Young prophet well this prophetic, yeah
Peeking out my window
I got something to lose
Working way too much
I got something to prove
Stressing way too much
I been driving myself crazy
I think we should get away
If you feeling the same baby yeah
It's just you and me so do you wanna slide
We can hit Jamaica hit the Caymans
Or Hawaii, or if you want like Bora Bora
Maybe the Maldives
Just hurry up because we losing time

Won't you come with me
We'll take a trip to a island
Fly across the ocean slide in auto pilot
Change ya plans but don't worry
What the price is, this moment priceless
And this feeling's timeless
Won't you come with me
We'll take a trip to a island
Fly across the ocean slide in auto pilot
Change ya plans but don't worry
What the price is, this moment priceless
And this feeling's timeless

Didn't I do this and that for ya
Don't play it tit for tat
Like I'm just so bad for ya
I got a new kit mane
She just so bad shorty
Badder than you I know
You isn't glad for me
That new boy you got can't even
Hold a bag to me
Downgrading baby I'm just so sad for ya
Keep downgrading baby
That's just so bad for ya

Could've did better than that girl
I'm just so mad for ya
Who's the one that got away
Between you and me
I'm a artist I could paint a ... beautifully
You a banker you can
Count money congruently
If I tell my side of the story
You tell yo side of the story
Which side the story they gone believe
You or me

Let me love you
Why change your heart
Let me love you
Why change your heart
