

Right My Wrongs

Ty Brasel

I just landed in the city
But I never feel at home
Always keep myself too busy
So I never feel alone
I been numb to the pain
Diamonds in my heart of stone
I be trying to change
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
(Right my)
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah yeah
(Right myyyy)
And before I break I'm just tryna fight my

Demons, look they get to creeping
I been in the deep end
I got trouble sleeping
I'm just stuck inside a daze
I got too much on my brain
I bear more than I could take
I'm just numb to the pain
But no doubt, you know bout
What I'm bout, can't hold out
Can't go down, I'ma go up
I'ma show out, yeah
Still all the days feel the same
Nowadays I just pray
God please it take away

I just landed in the city
But I never feel at home
Always keep myself too busy
So I never feel alone
I been numb to the pain
Diamonds in my heart of stone
I be trying to change
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
(Right my)
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah yeah
(Right myyyy)
And before I break I'm just tryna fight my

Demons yeah they stuck inside my dome
Tired of dealing with myself
Sometimes I wish I had a clone
So that I could disappear
Tired of drowning in my tears
Praying Jesus take the wheel
Cause I don't know how to steer
These are the walls inside of my brain
Every time I crack a smile, I'm hiding the pain
But I know it's just a page in a chapter
When I call on you I'm knowing that you'll answer

I just landed in the city
But I never feel at home

Always keep myself too busy
So I never feel alone
I been numb to the pain
Diamonds in my heart of stone
I be trying to change
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
(Right my)
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah yeah
(Right myyyy)
And before I break I'm just tryna fight my
Demons
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah
(Right my)
I'm just tryna right my wrongs yeah yeah
(Right myyyy)
And before I break I'm just tryna fight my
Demons
