

Spirit Flow

Ty Brasel

I ain't gonna lie I never knew it would be like this
It looks so easy far away but it ain't like that
Feel it in my heart so much to say
I hope they like it
I'm going all in from this day I'm living righteous
I'm still learning moving on ain't got it quite yet
Stepping forward upon the daily feel it in my chest
But I've been falling down I'm failing my test
And they keep coming around but I ain't ready yet
And my heart got burned
I ain't know where to turn
Through my failures I had to learn
That you need to discern
They say respect is earned
Why it seem like it take so long
Boy you better humble yourself
Acting like you ain't in our O zone
Remember my heart used to be on frozone
Now I walk around like a changed man
Met Jesus and he changed my plans
Watched him stretched out his hands
Told my bro to stop popping xans
You tryna make it to be a old man
I had to give Jesus my soul man
I had to let the spirit flow man

Yeah I had to go and let the spirit flow
I was lost in this world and living miserable
He took my misery and made a miracle
When Jesus rose He planted a rose
And it grew from the stone
But I almost crashed all them days living Reckless
Have you ever seen divine intervention
Just know that the storm preceded a blessing
I'm stepping ahead in triumphant procession
Got Heavens reflection
Glory complexion beaming yeah
I'ma just fall back and let Him keep increasing
Abundantly and exceeding
Don't lose faith know you gone make it out
Reflecting on my life tryna make it count
I counted the cost and it added peace
I counted on God and he broke me free
Now I count my blessings bountifully
When out the count they counted me
But it's always perfect timing
Look up it's aligning yeah

I ain't gonna lie I never knew it would be like this
It looks so easy far away but it ain't like that
Feel it in my heart so much to say
I hope they like it
I'm going all in from this day I'm living righteous
