

The Ascent (Interlude)

Ty Brasel

I ain't dead yet, I ain't dying
I just rose up from the ground
Now I'm flying
I got a story to tell, can't stay quiet
Hear the pilot, the plane is ascending
It's traveling high above the plains
I saw from the bird's eye view
I can see the sun above the rain
I can see the purpose in the pain
Mhm hmm
I can see the earth above the flames
Hmm Mhm
