

The Game

Ty Brasel

When I was young I would pop ace of spades
Money on the floor and the drugs in my veins
If I die in vain wouldn't that be a shame?
But If I leave the game
Will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?

Yeah ooh
When I was young, I was riding made men
Me Josh, Lil' Josh, Zach and Lil' Tim
Head to the spot
Make a play serve the fiends
Southwind, Shelby, Riverdale, Hacks, Quince
Long nights lost, for a come up
We was rapping in the closet
We was trapping pills and ganja, yeah them
On pharmaceuticals, I think I saw a evil spirit
On pharmaceuticals, I felt the love
When she sin, ah ah ah ah
Having visions of my end
But when I was young
I knew I was heaven sent
If I was to die in vain that would be a shame
But if I leave the game
Will they love me the same? Aw man

When I was young I would pop Ace Of Spades
Money on the floor and the drugs in my veins
If I die in vain wouldn't that be shame?
But If I leave the game
Will they love me the same? Yeah
When I was young I would daydrink for days
Now I'm grown up, I go from state to state
Walking to the stage
And they chanting my name
But If I leave the game
Will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?
If I leave the game will they love me the same?

Yeah ooh
When I was young all I want was to be famous
Cash and the whole nine
Birdies on the waitlist
Superstar rap star, fans international
Now I'm 23 celebrity on a first class
Flight we made it
Boarding my flight to the next city
My homies all think that I'm living the life
I haven't slept in forever I swear that I'd rather Go home and just lay my head down
I used to pray for success and feel it then

All I wanted was to make it out
Look out my plane window and then I see
All of my dreams just crashing
Ah ah, to the ground, this is flipside
I don't like the spotlight, I rather be low key
Need no more anxiety
If I walked away maybe I'd be sane
But if I leave the game
Will they still love me the same? Aw man

When I was young I would pop Ace Of Spades
Money on the floor and the drugs in my veins
If I die in vain wouldn't that be shame
But If I leave the game
Will they love me the same? Yeah
When I was young I would daydrink for days
Now I'm grown up, I go from state to state
Walking to the stage
And they chanting my name
But If I leave the game
Will they love me the same?
When I was young In the nightttime I pray
Father God, please keep the evil away
If I die before I wake then my soul to take
But if I live please God help me escape

Fear not young Ty man
God is with you
You're destined for greatness
