

Whirlwind

Ty Brasel

Fire, fire, fire, fire, fire

Mind twisted, caught up in the whirlwind
As the world keep spinning and turning
It's a evil world it get dirty
But everything happens for a purpose
World going crazy it's a circus to see
World on fire it's flames from the heat
I'm just tryna show em
What the world really need
I'm just tryna be the best version of me

Yeah, moving through the rain
Moving through the thunder
Moving through the forest
Moving through the jungle
I need angels to protect me yeah
First believe in God or you get humbled
I gotta get all my blessings
I can not sit in depression
I'm going harder than ever
I flash the Cross to the devil
My greatest self shall assemble
My story tell of the rebel
The plan shall prevail successful

Mind twisted, caught up in the whirlwind
As the world keep spinning and turning
It's a evil world it get dirty
But everything happens for a purpose

Back with another one
Back once again like Comic-Con
I am a pro I'm not a con
Moving states like I'm on the run
The road is dangerous I ain't joking
The waters is raging and I ain't drowning
This life is crazy but I ain't folding
This life is a journey but this my devotion
Yeah uh
And keep me down
It ain't no way cause it ain't
I put forth all my time not in vain
Bustin out the wrapper
Bustin out the cage
Bounce to the rhythm til May Day
Bounce to the rhythm til May Day

Mind twisted, caught up in the whirlwind
As the world keep spinning and turning
It's a evil world it get dirty
But everything happens for a purpose
World going crazy it's a circus to see
World on fire it's flames from the heat
I'm just tryna show em
What the world really need
I'm just tryna be the best version of me

Fire, fire, fire, fire
Fire down below, fire down below
Fire down below, fire down below
Who start the fire after all?
Who start the fire?
Who start the fire after all?
Who start the fire after all?
