Ty Dolla $ign

Got another nigga bitch in my bed right now
Got another nigga bitch in my bed right now
She got her legs all up in the air right now
But to show her how the dollar sign put it down
I'mma drop an AK in it put, put it down!
She wrapped her arms all around me
Licking on my neck and shit
She say she want it missionary
My hands all on her neck and shit
We grinding real slow, hard like I've been working out
She turned around and poke it out, I beat it up like Pacquiao

Oh, got another nigga bitch in my bed right now
Got another nigga bitch in my bed right now
She got her legs all up in the air right now
She got her legs all up in the air right now
For a young, for a young, oh, she do anything for a young
For a young, for a young, oh, she do anything for a young

She got the dollar sign tatty and she fucking with the kid
Her phone blowing up, her boyfriend wanna know where she is
He gon' stress her out, I'mma just stretch his bitch
Now his key don't fit, call the locksmith
Hands all on my meat, blowing on it, tasting it
She say she want it doggie-style
With my hands all on her waist and shit
He blowing up her line, texting her "let's stay together"
She turned it out and poked it out, I beat it up like Mayweathe
