

Matters

Ty Dolla $ign

What we not finna do is all that disrespect
And we not finna do this on the internet
No, we not finna make the same mistakes again
What you not finna do is get your way again, oh

That's all that matters to you
That's all that matters to you
That's all that matters to you, woah, woah

Fuck niggas, get money, you too hardcore
We had disagreement, but to you, it's far more
Too much back and forth
Wish you were in my arms more
You was fed up and I was fed up
Toxicity runnin' through our bloodstream
Please remind me your definition, what love means
This that type of tit for tat
They do when they sixteen
You said you'd be by my side when I'm sixty

Woah, woah, woah
What you not gon' do is go
And try humiliate me
Yeah, we been drinkin'
Guess you must be really faded

What we not finna do is all that disrespect
And we not finna do this on the internet
No, we not finna make the same mistakes again
What you not finna do is get your way again, oh

That's all that matters to you
That's all that matters to you
That's all that matters to you, woah, woah

Trust issues, we both don't know how to maintain Plus the last lil' girl you fucked with had a main thing
And now you think you gave it all away for nothin'
You was fed up, you should be fed up
But that doesn't mean you should never love again
I know your purpose wasn't just pain and sufferin'
I don't know, it's hard to find it and start it again
But I know it's torture seein' you post about it

Oh, oh, oh
What you not gon' do is go
And try humiliate me
Confessin' while you sippin'
Yeah, you must be really faded

What we not finna do is all that disrespect
And we not finna do this on the internet
No, we not finna make the same mistakes again
What you not finna do is get your way again, no

That's all that matters to you
That's all that matters

That's all that matters to you, oh, oh, oh

That's all that matters to you

That's all that matters to you

That's all that matters to you, woah, woah

Metro, that's all that matters to you

That's all that matters

That's all that matters to you, oh, oh
