

Westside

Ty Dolla $ign

The Westside, girls all extra fine
The Southside, they thick like apple pie (Mustard on the beat, ho!)
The East coast, the girls all down to ride
But I rep the Westside
You know I love the, the Westside, Westside
You know I, I've been all around the world I still love the Westside
Palm Trees and them pretty girls
You know I love the Westside
Throwing up them gang signs
And the movie stars shine, Westside
You know we stay out all the time
That's why I love the Westside
