

Fighter

Ty Herndon

I can see those black clouds rolling in
Feel the fear creeping in to my heart again
Sometimes life's like a ruthless fight
You can never win

Can't listen to the doubt draggin' round my soul
Down every dead end, midnight road
Gotta chose to hold on to the truth I know

So bring on the fire tryin' to burn me out
Bring on the wind tryin' to knock me down
Bring on the rain, all of the pain
Cause I got a faith that'll never drown
Just when you think I can't take no more
I come back stronger than I was before
Cause when I'm down in the dirt
I'm gonna rise up even higher
A fighter

I found at the moment I got nothin' left
It's when I gotta take just one more step
If I don't out and see the victory
It's gonna come next

So bring on the fire tryin' to burn me out
Bring on the wind tryin' to knock me down
Bring on the rain, all of the pain
Cause I got a faith that'll never drown
Just when you think I can't take no more
I come back stronger than I was before
Cause when I'm down in the dirt
I'm gonna rise up even higher
A fighter

And when the smoke clears you'll see
I'm gonna be back on my feet
Ohhhh ohhhh ohhhh yeah

Bring on the fire tryin' to burn me out
Bring on the wind tryin' to knock me down
Bring on the rain, all of the pain
Cause I got a faith that'll never drown
Just when you think I can't take no more
I come back stronger than I was before
Cause when I'm down in the dirt
I'm gonna rise up even higher
Than I was before
I was born a survivor (I was born a survivor)
Yeah, A fighter

Ooohhh

Yeaaahhhh

So bring on the fire tryin' to burn me out
Bring on the fire
Bring on the wind trying to knock me down

It ain't never gonna knock me down
Bring on the rain
Bring on the rain
And all of the pain
No more pain
Cause I got a faith that'll never drown
Just when you think I can't take no more (Ohhh, Take no more)
I come back stronger than I was before
Come back stronger
A fighter
