

Drinkin' Alone

Ty Myers

I can't find one good reason for leaving here alone
With all this built-up anger and strangers to hold 90-proof ain't done nothing but prove to me Washed up and all alone is where you want me to be

So throw 'em down shot by shot till I can't feel the stool I'm sittin' on Walkin' 'round buzzin' like that ole neon sign on the wall Blue eyes in the corner lookin' like she wants my number in her phone
So much for drinkin' alone

Buy a round of whiskey sour, tip the band on the stage
She's lookin' at me like she might need a little scenery change
She says, "Let's go to my place" as she jumps in the passenger seat
Safe to say, this ain't where I thought this night would lead

Drivin' half of what it says to go on that speed limit sign She's wantin' some of me, and I'm just trying to stay between t he lines
Screw it, let's just pull over right here on the side of the ro ad
So much for drinkin' alone

Drivin' half of what it says to go on that speed limit sign
She's wantin' some of me, and I'm just trying to stay between t
he lines
Screw it, let's just pull over right here on the side of the ro
ad
So much for drinkin' alone

I can't find one good reason for leaving here alone