

Don't Lie

Ty Segall

And the very thought of ruin
Distant this painted night
Nights like this will uplift even
The heaviest of hearts
Go out and shed your death
Just let it fall right down
With endless fascination
How much will you hold?

And no matter how you do it
It's gonna turn out right
Of the stars above you
Which one heals your eye?
Without a memory to hang
You can lose yourself
As long as truth is with you
Your love will be good

Please don't lie
Please don't lie
Please don't lie
Please don't lie
Don't lie, don't lie
Don't lie, don't lie
