

Move

Ty Segall

When we are sideways
I disconnect the phone
It's different in the morning
When we're alone
When we're alone
When we're alone

And when we're shopping
And making up our bed
Nobody seems to notice
The things we might've said
Things we might've said
Things we might've said

Moving, you come to me, I
Move through, I move to you too
Together, we can move

And now we're stirring
And we don't care
For the commotion
Out there
Out there
Out there

Moving, you come to me, I
Move through, I move to you too
Together, we can move
Moving, you come to me, I
Move through, I move to you too
Moving, I move through to you
Together, we can move
