

Reflections

Ty Segall

No one will ever know
Until the mask is on the wall
There are many places besides you
Leave them
And go

Watch out

Just reach out and
Touch reflection

You can get to know the places inside you
Just invite yourself
You can get to know the faces inside you
Just describe yourself
And go

Watch out
Watch out
Watch out

Just reach out and
Touch reflection

Look into the
Into the place where you've been Forever
