

Reverse Shark Attack

Ty Segall

I met her on the shore
She said her name was lovely
She made my heart her home
She was my one and only
La la la la la

She said she's mine for life
Now we're old and merry
I need her here tonight
I need her here forever
La la la la la

Hey my pretty little thing
I never want to see you work a day again
Hey my precious little bird
I'm never gonna make you
Spread your wings again
'Cause life is a mine field
And mine in the worst kind of way
I'm never gonna let you
I'm never gonna push you away

You're just a little girl
You're never gonna make it
Make it on your own
I swear you never have to leave
Cause I locked you in my heart and You're safe inside my home
'Cause life is a shotgun
It's just gonna blow you away
I'm never gonna let you
I'm not gonna push you away

"I just gotta clear my head
I'll be outside, I'll walk alone."
She said. She's gonna be right back
Just to the shore
Then coming home

She never came, no she
Never came back oh
I blame it all on the
Goddamn sharks oh
And now I sit and
I plot my revenge
I need to travel to from
Where they came
And find the beast
That is to blame
And kill him
Kill him
Kill him
