Lock the door don't allow
Enemies are here now
To raid this place and find out what's hiding
Turn around and don't stop
Blank them out and get out
When they come they won't show me mercy

Would you rather desert me?
Would you let them hurt me?
If you knew all the things I did before
Is it much to ask you?
Never meant to involve you
These are things that I don't do anymore
Anymore, anymore

I'm criminal
Not rational
