

World's Apart

tyDi

"Oh how did it come to this?
I'm still breathing, Blind faith and this silent kiss and I'm still reeling, hopin' coming through my heart,
and I know it's meaning, We'll take it back to the start, and be done dealing.

Please don't break my heart,
You hold all it's pieces,
Never let it fall it apart,
All you say, you say it all
We lose the sense of reason,
everytime we seem to fall.

One look and the world stands still,
but the sky is falling,
one word and we both begin to accept ending,
Oh crashing into your arms,
but still I'm dreaming,
one wound it's still world's apart,
and there's no healing,

Please don't break my heart,
You hold all it's pieces,
Never let it fall it apart,
All you say, you say it all
We lose the sense of reason,
everytime we seem to fall.

Please don't break my heart,
You hold all it's pieces,
Never let it fall it apart."
