

No Question

Tyga

She asks me do I got a type?
I told her, "Baby, you what I like"
A lot of girls in here tonight, yeah
Matter fact, you the highlight, uh

Staring at you, no reason, tryna take it easy
Booked and busy and you still can't read me
Only want to please me, shawty want to please me
Opps in the spot, tell my hitter, "Just leave it"
I'm top, top, like CR every season
Last nigga lost your trust, he was too deceiving
I know you feel defeated, I know I could relieve it
Perfect stress remedy, I got it and you need it, believe it

Love me when I'm loving you
No question, it's like you're the sun and I'm the moon
So perfect for me
I just really want to be your baby
And I hope you want to be mine
'Cause I love me when I'm loving you
No question 'cause I know
I want to be obsessed with you
Mean more, not less to you
I wanna take my time and invest in you
Shit like magic when I'm next to you
You might be the one

Be the one that I'm looking for
Make a nigga hop out, open up your door
2025 Bentley, and it's all yours
We could take a test drive to the corner store
And it got all the options
Dropping all my options
You my number choice, I'm ready to lock in
Got the Gram poppin'
Reading all your comments
You the one trending, number one topic

Love me when I'm loving you
No question, it's like you're the sun and I'm the moon
So perfect for me
I just really want to be your baby
And I hope you want to be mine
'Cause I love me when I'm loving you
No question 'cause I know
I want to be obsessed with you
Mean more, not less to you
I wanna take my time and invest in you
Shit like magic when I'm next to you
You might be the one
You might be the one

You might be the one
