

All Change Faces

Tygers of Pan Tang

You never know when someone's true or false,
You never know who's trying to rip you off,
You're so afraid of losing it,
Once you start you just can't quit,
Gotta stick to the rules with a face that fits

All change faces,
Leave no traces,
Deal those aces,
All change faces,
Winning races,
Going places

You're in the danger zone playng danger games,
Where everyone's just faces without names,
Look for every chance to play,
It's all illusion anyway,
Make your moves could be your lucky day

Everything's got a price and you must pay,
Don't let them have it their own way,
Keep cotrol of everything you do,
Cause in the end it all comes yo you
