

Damn You!

Tygers of Pan Tang

You gotta run for your life
The winds of change are coming
We need to leave right now
Never look back keep on running
So take what you can
To survive this urban jungle
Broken bones broken minds
All that's left of this mankind

I wanna stay alive
Bullets keep on coming
I wanna stay alive
Don't want 'em inside of me

Damn you and all your lies, twisting all the truth
These eyes can't hide this soul ain't bulletproof
Damn everything and everyone everywhere
These eyes can't hide this soul ain't bulletproof

One shot from behind will easily blow your mind
That pieces of meat that's you
Is all that's left behind
You gotta save yourself
From the gates of hell
All the broken hearts broken minds
Nothings left of this mankind

I wanna stay alive
Bullets keep on coming
I wanna stay alive
Don't want 'em inside of me

Damn you and all your lies, twisting all the truth
These eyes can't hide this soul ain't bulletproof
Damn everything and everyone everywhere
These eyes can't hide this soul ain't bulletproof
