

Destiny

Tygers of Pan Tang

I'm like a ghost on the wind, never leaving footprints behind
Seek them here, seek them there, I will find a way

Like a chill on the breeze, I'll be right behind you following
Track you down, gun you down, there is no other way

What ya gonna do where ya gonna go
Who ya gonna be when everything around you is blown away
What ya gonna do, where ya gonna do

This is my destiny
Written in stone for me
This is my destiny
Written in stone
And I walk this road alone

All without reason, they came along and took my world away
Heaven knows, god only knows how it ended up this way
So run, I will catch, yeah I, I will find you
I will have my judgement day, since they took my world away

What ya gonna do where ya gonna go
Who ya gonna be when everything around you is blown away
What ya gonna do, where ya gonna do

This is my destiny
Written in stone for me
This is my destiny
Written in stone
And I walk this road alone
