

Kiss The Sky

Tygers of Pan Tang

The sea at night makes me shiver and shake
I'm scared of the storm, it's coming my way

I'm seasick and closer to hell
I'm riding the waves of the tide
I'm under the spell

In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul
In the eye of the storm
Lost in the cold
In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul

Raise the sails, turn the wheel!
The depths are calling but I won't kneel

Like an arrow flying in the sky
Our ship will break the waves
I will survive

In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul
In the eye of the storm
Lost in the cold
In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul

As I close my eyes, I can see the light
Out of the tunnel a brand new life
At last I'm alive
I'm alive
Let me kiss the sky

I'm seasick and closer to hell
I'm riding the waves of the tide
I'm under your spell

In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul
In the eye of the storm
Lost in the cold
In the eye of the storm
I won't lay my soul
I won't lay my soul
