

Raise Some Hell

Tygers of Pan Tang

Nothing you can say about it
I ain't gonna change my mind
I've given you the chance to prove it
You said it was a waste of time
So here I am alone asking
Who's wrong and who's right?
I really can't see no answers
It was just and endless fight

"Hey!" gonna raise some hell
"Yeah!" never look down
As the race begins I'm gonna hit the ground
"Hey!" - Gonna raise some hell
"Yeah!" - I'm gonna please the crowd and break the speed of sound

Tell me was it really worth it?
Was I the perfect prey?
Like a hunter you waited for me
And stabbed me without a care
I'm getting close to madness
I need some peace of mind
I thought you were there to heal me
You're the poison I must fight
