

Sweet Lies

Tygers of Pan Tang

You came, you saw
Fortune
I'm melting for you much
Just flesh and blood
When you whisper
Those words in my ears
You wrap these chains around my heart
A thousand fears just disappear
You know so well how to break my heart

So keep telling the sweet lies
Keep telling the sweet lies
I can make believe we'll never disagree
Keep on tellin' me
Keep on tellin' the sweet lies
Tellin' me yeah

I don't want you
A big pain
Now I can escape
Into a private world
When I'm missing
Where I can't forget
She goes up and down
Around outside
She's the cure
And I'll pretend
Only I can tell what's on your mind

So keep telling the sweet lies
Keep telling the sweet lies
I can make believe we'll never disagree
Keep on tellin' me
Keep on tellin' the sweet lies
Tellin' me yeah

She wants me
She wants me not
I am so afraid
Two are one, never start
Oh wait, always be there yeah

Always be there yeah

So keep telling the sweet lies
Keep telling the sweet lies
I can make believe we'll never disagree
Keep on tellin' me
Keep on tellin' the sweet lies
Tellin' me yeah
