

The Devil You Know

Tygers of Pan Tang

So you think it's fair to say
A life alone ain't worth the pain
Count the days, the endless nights
Will this woman change your life
Once you know what you're looking for
Be yourself you gotta stand tall

The Devil, you know
Can rock you deep inside with her moves
The Devil, you know
I said the Devi you know

I'm not trying to convince you
Angelic look can fool you
Might be the devil you'll never know
But who can you trust, friend or foe?
In this world full of hate a dark secret is all I crave

The Devil, you know
The Devil, you know
I said the Devil you know
