

The Reason Why

Tygers of Pan Tang

Summer sun way up high, shines your love light in my eyes
Tender warmth you give to me, makes it work so easily
Autumn skies chill the air, I still walk without a care
As the leaves begin to fall, I'm still waiting for your call

Oh - oh this World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Oh - oh my World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Winter moon comes too soon, brings the ghost of all my fears
Though I know I'll find my way, as the clouds disappear
Early Spring melts the snow, warms my heart to let you know
Stay with me for evermore, let me show you my love is strong

Oh - oh this World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Oh - oh my World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Round and round it goes in my mind I've been trying to tell you
Round and round it goes in my mind I've been trying to tell you

Oh - oh this World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Oh - oh my World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Oh - oh this World will come alive tonight, you're the reason why

Oh - oh my World will come alive tonight, you're the reason...
