

Victim

Tygers of Pan Tang

Well I can't believe all the things that
I've begun to do,
Friends say I let them down
And messed around I guess it's true,
With my derelict heart I play my part so well,
But I'm afraid my masquerade has begun to tell

Well I, used to be a level headed guy,
But now I can't think straight no matter how I try

I'm an innocent, try to understand,
I'm an innocent, victim of a thing called love,
I'm an innocent, try to understand,
I'm an innocent, victim of a thing called love

Every night I'm not there, you wonder where I am,
How can I explain something I don't understand.

Well it seems to you I'm so calm and so content,
But here inside I'm an emotional wreck
