

Reach

Tyketto

Midnight my regrets play their shadow game
Thought I heard you singing in your sleep
Softly a lighter touch drives the ghosts away
The shelter you bring me runs so deep

And in the middle of it all
You're waiting there to break the spell
So when the darkness takes its turn
You love me when I can't love myself

If I reach for you now I will find you there
If I call out your name you will hear
Through my darkest refrains
You will see me home again

Some days I find you with your head down in your hands
Sometimes the world will get the better of you
Sundown back to back we'll sit and watch the colors dance

And I'll whisper, "This too shall pass"

And in the middle of it all
I'll take the weight that you can't bear
To help you find what you have lost
And love you when you can't love yourself

If you reach for me now you will find me there
If you call out my name I will hear
Through your darkest refrains
I will sing you home again
If you reach for me now I will be there
If you reach for me now you will find me there
If you call out my name I will hear
Through your darkest refrains
I will sing you home again
If you reach for me now I will be there
I will be there
