

Touchdown

Tyla Yaweh

Touch down in another place
It's a Saturday
Turn my locations off
Background and I never change
I just went away
And I live with it all day
I'm lonely (No way)
I'm sorry (Don't say)
You told me, you told me that I'm different now

I swear this shit, it gets to my mental (My mental)
Inside, the cries are judgmental (Judgmental)
Pop pills, have sex with my mistress (My mistress)
It's still me, so God as my witness (My witness)

Some nights, I wanted to die (To die)
Don't wanna see the pain in your eyes (Your eyes)
Why don't you let me try?
Don't you say your last goodbye

I'm lonely (No way)
I'm sorry (Don't say)
You told me, you told me that I'm different now

Stop and we start a track to say that fuckin' I miss you
Nothin' left in the bottle but the poison and issues
Carve out her name in heart until you see that it ripped
Fuckin' some bitch, but I'm still wishin' that I was in you

Some nights, I wanted to die (To die)
Don't wanna see the pain in your eyes (Your eyes)
Why don't you let me try?
Don't you say your last goodbye

Different now
I'm different now
Different now
I'm different now
