

Tears

Tyla

When the mirror hurts your feelings
You believe in all its lies
When you're broken, need some healing
And there's stormclouds in your eyes

Give all your tears to me
Give all your tears to me
If you try, and you try and nothing works
Baby, you don't have to hurt
Give all your tears to me
And I'll cry them for you

Woah-oh
I'll cry them for you
Woah-oh

I'm a river you can't float in (Float in)
I would never let you drown (Let you drown)
When your eyes turn into oceans (Oceans)
I'll be there before the first drop hits the ground

Give all your tears to me
Give all your tears to me
If you try, and you try and nothing works
Baby, you don't have to hurt
Give all your tears to me
And I'll cry them for you
And I'll cry them for you

Woah-oh
And I'll cry them for you
Woah-oh
Woah, I'll cry them for you
Woah-oh
I'll cry them for you
I'll cry them for you
