

Open Your Eyes

Tyler Blackburn

Once or twice
Roll the dice
Take the time with me babe
You never know what it's gonna do
If you don't know where to go
Then come along with me girl
So much more to see girl
Gonna show you what is real

You gotta let go, let go
Ohh
And open your eyes, open your eyes

Put a layer
What's her name
I just don't care
Make time
Take care
Do it now anywhere
Flowing like the breeze baby
I'm gonna make you mine
You better take your time
Let it be, let it be
Baby look at me

You gotta let go, let go
Ohh
And open your eyes
You gotta let go, let go
Ohh
And open your eyes, open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyes
