

Save me

Tyler Blackburn

Can we survive
The heart that's lost control?
Break all your worries
And make my heart feel whole

Well, there's nothing in the room
But the shadow on the wall
There's no place to hide
There's no place at all

Will you save me?
I will believe in you
I'll give love
I'll give love

Save me, your arms I'll fall into
I'll give love
I'll give love now

I believe the world can take
And shatter the strongest soul
It's enough for one man to take
Knowing his right from wrong

There's no room in the darkness
So bring down these walls
With no one to believe in
Makes no sense at all

Will you save me?
I will believe in you
I'll give love
I'll give love

Save me, your arms I'll fall into
I'll give love
I'll give love now

There's a moving heart in me
Oh oh oh oh oh
There's a wounded heart
I see

Save me
I will believe in you
I'll give love
I'll give love

Save me, your arms I'll fall into
I'll give love
I'll give love

Save me
I will believe in you
I'll give love
I'll give love

Save me, your arms I'll fall into
I'll give love
I'll give love

Anyway, anywhere
Through this life without a care
We can think without a thought
We can hope to sing along
I'll be there
I'll be there
I'll be there
I'll be there now
