Drown

Tyler Carter

Stop mistaking conversations
Pour your soul onto my pillowcase
Heart's gonna call from overthinking
Bite my nails before I kiss you awake

Hard to let you go, I feel incapable
Of loving the way you deserve
Things I failed to say
Give me up for a taste of
All the ways I've been hurt

Oh, you're everything I thought I couldn't live without
Worries from my past are flowing over time
After time, after time, after time
Won't drown myself again
Can't let you in

Tried to find impressive colors
Paint over the shadows of another life
I'm drinking wine in my house of pain, yeah
I know that love is a losing game
I just don't have the strength to play

Oh, you're everything I thought I couldn't live without
Worries from my past are flowing over time
After time, after time, after time
Won't drown myself again
Can't let you in

Can't let you in
Every time after time, after time, after time
Won't drown myself again
Can't let you in

Hard to let you go, I feel incapable
Of loving the way you deserve
Things I failed to say
Give me up for a taste of
All the ways I've been hurt

Oh, you're everything I thought I couldn't live without
Worries from my past are flowing over time
After time, after time, after time
Won't drown myself again
Can't let you in

Can't let you in
Every time after time, after time, after time
Won't drown myself again
Can't let you in

Can't let you in
