

John, Give 'Em Hell

Tyler Glenn

I heard your voice inside my darkness
You gave me something to hold onto
And did you ever start to notice
All these voices change the world?

And John, they got you all wrong
So I wrote you this song
And John, keep on keeping on
There's work to be done

And in the meantime give 'em hell
In the meantime give 'em hell
Truth is all that they want
But the truth's a one-two punch

Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

Our lives are different, different commitments
Sins and religion, what do they mean?
Some say you're evil, but I think you're real
I just want what's real from this whole thing

And John, they got you all wrong
So I wrote you this song
And John, keep on keeping on
Don't let them think they've won

And in the meantime give 'em hell
In the meantime give 'em hell
Truth is all that they want
But the truth's a one-two punch

Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

And give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

And give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell

Go give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
Give 'em hell
