

Sudden Death (OMG)

Tyler Glenn

God
I never asked to fall from grace
You saw it all over my face
I left for California
I'm searching for my soul
But I hate the traffic in L.A

Everybody's saying
"Baby, you got a little crazy"
My mind's a little hazy
Better not say a word, but

Oh my god
Catch me I'm starting to fall
I don't know what all this is for
Keep coming at me with your disrespect
You went and started a war
Now I don't care anymore
I keep on living like it's sudden death
Sudden death

I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living
Sudden death
I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living

I wish that you would just see me
Carried away in revelry
It's been a car crash winter
They're calling me a sinner
Things aren't the way they used to be

Everybody's saying
"Baby, you got a little crazy"
My mind's a little hazy
Better not say a word, but

Oh my god
Catch me I'm starting to fall
I don't know what all this is for
Keep coming at me with your disrespect
You went and started a war
Now I don't care anymore
I keep on living like it's sudden death
Sudden death

I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living
Sudden death
I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living

We could go an fake through everything
And they could hear us louder if we scream
Maybe life is more than just a dream
Just a dream

Oh my god
Catch me I'm starting to fall
I don't know what all this is for
Keep coming at me with your disrespect
You went and started a war
Now I don't care anymore
I keep on living like it's sudden death
Sudden death

I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living
Sudden death
I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living

I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living
Sudden death
I keep on living
Keep on living
Keep on living

(Oh my god)
