

One More Song

Tyler Hilton

We've been talkin' since the lake was blue
Turned silver by the moon
Now it's blue again
Well, we laughed and dreamed
Talked about everythin'
I even wiped a tear off your chin

And I've kissed away all your lipstick
Messed up that pretty blonde hair
There ain't nothin' left to say, ain't nothin' left to feel
But baby, I don't care

'Cause here comes the sun
And you look good in the mornin' light
I don't see anyone
Dammit, girl, don't say goodbye
I don't want to waste this moment, I've been waitin' for all night long
I got the radio on
So let me hold you in my arms
For one more song

Well, I know there ain't no way
To get over the way
I'm feelin' right now
The skin on skin
Just hidin' in the weeds
While the mornin' bees are buzzin' around

I could stare at you forever
Get lost in those green eyes
I just want to keep fallin' in love with you
Everyday for the rest of my life

'Cause here comes the sun
And you look good in the mornin' light
I don't see anyone
Dammit, girl, don't say goodbye
I don't want to waste this moment, I've been waitin' for all night long
I got the radio on
So let me hold you in my arms
For one more song

And when it's over, baby
If you want to, I can drive you home
Or if you want to stay
We can make the day another all night long

Well, here comes the sun
And you look good in the mornin' light
I don't see anyone
Dammit, girl, don't say goodbye
I don't want to waste this moment, I've been waitin' for all night long
I got the radio on
So let me hold you in my arms
For one more song
