

She Can

Tyler Hubbard

Who can make a tailgate-gunner, Silverado-runner
Wanna slow down and plant some roots
Who can take a wild tornado in steel toe Laredos
And show him how to really fill boots
Who can get a man prayin', get a heart breakin'
By just walkin' into the room
Who can turn all the attention
Get all the boys wishin' that they had what I do

She can run with the rowdy, she can hang with the best
She can give you that smile, she can steal your breath
Make your world spin slower
Than Goodyears rollin' down a nowhere, old dirt road

She can light you up like a lighter in your pocket
Catch your heart on fire like a July rocket
See through the stubborn, let a man be a man
Can't nobody quite love me like
She can
Aw, she can

When I can't keep goin', I'm upstream rowin'
Burned out like the sun gone black
Yeah, when I can't see it, the rhyme or the reason
Or any of the good through the bad
She can carry the torch, put the wind in the sails
Get the gas in the tank, keep it all on the rails

She can run with the rowdy, she can hang with the best
She can give you that smile, she can steal your breath
Make your world spin slower
Than Goodyears rollin' down a nowhere, old dirt road

She can light you up like a lighter in your pocket
Catch your heart on fire like a July rocket
See through the stubborn, let a man be a man
Can't nobody quite love me like
She can (She can)
Aw, she can

Nobody loves me the way my baby loves me
Can't nobody do it quite like she can
Nobody loves me the way my baby loves me
Can't nobody do it quite like

She can run with the rowdy, hang with the best
Give you that smile, she can steal your breath
Make your world spin slower
Than Goodyears rollin' down a nowhere, old dirt road

She can light you up like a lighter in your pocket
Catch your heart on fire like a July rocket
See through the stubborn, let a man be a man
Can't nobody quite love me like
She can (Nobody loves me the way my baby loves me)
Aw, she can (Can't nobody do it quite like)
She can (Nobody loves me the way my baby loves me)

(Can't nobody do it quite like) She can
