

Summer Talkin'

Tyler Hubbard

Every time I see a sunset, I get
A burnin' down in my heart, and wonder where you are
Every time I feel a warm breeze, I see
Your yellow sundress dance, two hearts in the sand, and damn

I just can't believe I got all caught up in it like a wave over you
What a fool
Oh, I guess I shoulda known it was so good, it would be over too soon
Oh, I never knew

It was just the summer talkin'
Taste of the salt in your kiss that had me hypnotized
Girl, the way the sun was shinin', I was blinded
Thinkin' you were only mine
Oh, I, I
I thought we'd be together from then until forever
But September came callin'
Said it was just the summer talkin'
It was just the summer talkin'

It's funny how that heat can wear off when the leaves fall
And I fell too, so why didn't you?
I guess we were just a couple-month kinda crush, not enough
Don't wanna make it last, still wouldn't take it back

Oh, I can't believe I got all caught up in it like a wave over you
What a fool
Oh, I guess I shoulda known it was so good, it would be over too soon
Oh, I never knew

It was just the summer talkin'
Taste of the salt in your kiss that had me hypnotized
Girl, the way the sun was shinin', I was blinded
Thinkin' you were only mine
Oh, I, I
I thought we'd be together from then until forever
But September came callin'
Said it was just the summer talkin'
It was just the summer talkin'

Heartbreak for a souvenir
Wishin' you were here
But you're gone, gone, gone

Heartbreak for a souvenir
Wishin' you were here
But you're gone, gone, gone

Yeah, and it was just the summer talkin'
And lyin' to me (Lying)

It was just the summer talkin'
Taste of the salt in your kiss that had me hypnotized
Girl, the way the sun was shinin', I was blinded
Thinkin' you were only mine
Oh, I, I
I thought we'd be together from then until forever

But September came callin'
Said it was just the summer talkin'
It was just the summer talkin'

It was just the summer talk, summer talk
It was just the summer talkin'
It was just the summer talk, summer talk
It was just the summer talkin'
