Good Enough

Tyler Rich

Do you remember the days when we used to pray
For things that we take for granted right now
We were scrapin' up change
To put some gas in the tank
It made us happy just drivin' around

Oh now we got checks to cash
But bigger bills to pay
Sixty hour weeks, gettin' in our way
Sometimes baby I wish that we could get back to that place
Oh I miss that smile on your face when

Feelin' good was a pickup truck
Windows down, kickin' up dust
With something strong in your Solo cup
Your favorite song when you turn it up
Let's light up the night
We'll roll where we roll
Laugh 'til we cry, it's good for your soul
We were young and dumb
Just livin' on love
And feelin' good
Feelin' good was good enough

Do you remember the nights when we were livin' the life
'Cause we could buy a box of wine for a week
We made more outta less
And made more time for our friends
And said a lot more yes
No I don't want to forget when

Feelin' good was a pickup truck
Windows down, kickin' up dust
Something strong in your Solo cup
Your favorite song when you turn it up
Let's light up the night
We'll roll where we roll
Laugh 'til we cry, it's good for your soul
We were young and dumb
Just livin' on love
And feelin' good
Feelin' good was good enough
Good enough

Whoa, oh oh oh
Whoa, oh oh oh
The good old days ain't that far away
Whoa, oh oh oh
Whoa, oh oh oh
It's the perfect night and the perfect time for

Feelin' good in a pickup truck
Windows down, kickin' up dust
With something strong in your Solo cup
Your favorite song so just turn it up
Let's light up the night
We'll roll where we roll

Laugh 'til we cry, it's good for your soul
We were young and dumb
Just livin' on love
And feelin' good
Feelin' good was good enough
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
Oh, oh yeah, feelin' good

Oh, oh, yeah
Feelin' good was good enough, yeah
(Oh, oh, oh, oh oh oh oh)
Oh yeah
Feelin' good was good enough
